WELCOME

...to our 15th Fall Quarter Horse Production Sale!

The heart and foundation of our ranch operation is our Hereford cattle. Cattle and horses are an essential mix on a ranch like ours and the horses are now a big part of the program. Quality purebred livestock are a family passion and we follow many of the same principles in the cattle and horse breeding programs.

The 2018 foal offering is our largest ever mixing our long-time genetics with some new sires stirred in. We think they are our best ever and are proud to present them. The saddle horses are an outstanding group of young, home-raised horses with a few older horses consigned by friends and employees. They are horses we look forward to seeing continue to perform.

Ours is a family ranch and we work closely together in all aspects of its operation. Our ranch crew, including Devin Sweitzer and Josh Rolle, works our cattle horseback and Ty Hotchkiss puts the finishing touches on all the ranchers. Prospect horses, the last few years, have been started by the High and Zimmerman families with guidance from Judah Bauman. We have found this program to be an excellent fit for us giving the horses a solid foundation. We look forward to your evaluation.

Dedicated to good ranching with good Herefords and Quarter Horses backed by our faith and integrity of business, our family sincerely appreciates the opportunity to present the product of our efforts to you.

Heavy boned, big footed and stout, "Pepto" is a big man's horse. He has a good, soft handle on him and, for his size, shows lots of talent on a cow. Very attractive colored with some chrome, this horse will be noticed. Gentle and easy to catch, he usually meets you at the gate.

"Asher" is a big, solid rancher that performs well at pasture roping and doctoring. He can cover a lot of ground and still be riding with ease at the day's end. He has a considerable amount of 'Go,' but seems to be good minded. He has a lot of cow. Less experienced riders get along with him, however he may be too much horse for some. If you turn him out for a couple weeks, expect extra energy, but no buck. Owned by Tonya Redger.

"Dunny" has spent the past few years on the ranch in South Dakota and has been used for everything from dragging calves to loading yearlings. He covers the country very smoothly, is sure footed and very athletic with a nice handle. He is quick footed enough that beginner riders might roll off of him. The somewhat competent rider that wants a horse that handles time off well and handles nicely will enjoy him. He has an old, healed cut on the right front leg that does not affect him in the slightest. Watch him in the video. Owned by Ty Hotchkiss. Call 605/210-0242 with questions.

I started Ratchet as a two yr. old at KN Performace Horses. After my 60 days, he received a year of excellent barrel training before I traded for him as a three yr. old. Since then, he's been on the ranch exposed to ranch work with a little roping and cow work. He's always been very good minded, gentle and takes new things and places well. He will roll up on a steer nicely and can give you some speed and then come right back down. This summer, Ashley Thybo took him and started him back up on barrels. He jumped right back into it and is showing lots of potential. He ought to be a nice one with the right development. Easy to take around the barrels and has a great foundation, just needs seasoned. 15.0 hh —I've had Grullahoop for several years and he's developed into my "go-to" horse and might be as nice of a horse as I've been around. Right from the start, he's been reliable and eager to please with a good attitude and lots of character. Thick built with a nice hip, decent withers and a very nice shape with tons of eye appeal. His unique color and sharp looks really make him stand out from the crowd. He handles time off extremely well and has a really nice, soft handle. With experience doing it all from ranch rodeos to dragging calves and even a little team roping, he's safe, reliable and looks good doing whatever he does. His only flaw is that his papers never made it to me. Owned by Ty Hotchkiss. Call 605/210-0242 with questions.
